RUMANIAN DECREE ON QUALIFICATIONS FOR HIGHER ACADEMIC RANKS

[Decree No 529, issued on 27 December 1952 by the Presidium of the Grand National Assembly of the Rumanian People's Republic, sets qualifications for higher academic ranks. A summary of the provisions of the decree follows.]

To stimulate the training of teaching staffs in higher education, and to encourage scientific research in higher pedagogical institutes, the Presidium of the Grand National Assembly decrees the following:

Article 1

The following higher academic ranks will be established: assistant, lecturer, and professor of higher education.

Article 2

These ranks are to be granted by the Committee for Higher Education under the Council of Ministers, through the Higher Commission for the Awarding of Diplomas.

Article 3

The rank of assistant is to be granted to persons who have passed the state examination for the diploma, or an equivalent examination at an institution of higher education, who have shown teaching qualities and aptitude for scientific research, and who are working under the guidance of a professor or lecturer.

Article 4

The rank of lecturer is to be granted to persons who hold the title of candidate in science and who are working as assistants or instructors in institutions of higher education under the guidance of a professor.

Article 5

The Higher Commission for the Awarding of Diplomas may grant the rank of lecturer to persons who do not hold a scientific degree, as follows:

a. To teachers who have shown exceptional specialized knowledge and special teaching qualities, and who have carried on meritorious scientific activity.

b. To persons who have passed the examinations for lecturer, and who have demonstrated a capacity for science teaching as manifested by a year of experience.

c. To specialists who have high qualifications and long experience in institutes of scientific research, in industrial production, in transport, in agriculture, in the state apparatus, or in arts, and who have been lecturing for one year.

Article 6

The rank of professor of higher education is to be granted to persons who hold the degree of doctor of science, and who have worked as instructors and lecturers in institutions of higher education.

The Higher Commission for the Awarding of Diplomas may grant the rank of professor of higher education to persons who do not have the degree of doctor of science, but only on the basis of fulfillment of qualifications in Article 5 above.

Article 7

Regulations for the organization and functions of the Higher Commission for the Awarding of Diplomas will be approved by the Council of Ministers.
